April 5 - 7, 2013, near Nashville, Tennessee

A Recommitment to Our People

The West faces many crises, but the greatest is the crisis of race. In virtually every Western country, the European majority is threatened with dispossession by non-white immigrants. Unless whites rekindle their consciousness of race and act in their own interests, they will be pushed aside by others.

We are dedicated to a renewed sense of Western peoplehood. We have an absolute right to continue to live as a unique people with a unique culture. Join us for a stimulating weekend of education, fellowship—and recommitment to the ideals of Western Civilization.

Speakers will include:

Roger McGrath — “The Warrior Heroes of Our Tribe.” Professor McGrath is a historian of the West, California, and the United States. He is the author of Gunfighters, Highwaymen, & Vigilantes, and has appeared as a commentator on documentaries aired on the History Channel, A&E, Discovery, and TNT. He teaches at Cal State Northridge and at Pepperdine.

RamZPaul — “Sex and Nationalism.” Mr. Paul describes himself as “a sometimes sober guy with a camera who creates videos on YouTube. Mostly mocking the establishment’s religion of Cultural Marxism, his iconoclastic show has been described as “Pop Culture Meets Nationalism.”

Byron Roth — “Off-shoring, Mass Immigration and American Wage Stagnation: Why Education is No Solution.” Dr. Roth is Professor Emeritus of Psychology at Dowling College. He is the author of Prescription for Failure: Race Relations in the Age of Social Science. His latest book is The Perils of Diversity: Immigration and Human Nature, which Jared Taylor calls “a brilliant diagnosis of the crisis we face.”

John Derbyshire — “The Great Encounters: When Races First Met.” Mr. Derbyshire is a novelist, pop-math author, reviewer, and opinion journalist. He is best known for his columns at Takimag.com and Vdare.com and for his Radio Derb podcasts. For many years Mr. Derbyshire wrote for National Review, but was ousted for saying sensible things about black people.

Jared Taylor — “Report From the Trenches.” Jared Taylor will host the conference. He is the editor of American Renaissance and the author of White Identity: Racial Consciousness in the 21st Century.

Fabrice Robert — “Europe Awakes.” Mr. Robert is the president of the Bloc Identitaire, a French nationalist movement that promotes identity at three levels: European (a civilizational identity), French (a historical identity), and Regional (an identity of flesh and blood). The Bloc strongly opposes non-European immigration and Islamicization.

Jim Goad — “Happy Being on the Wrong Side of History.” Mr. Goad has written more than 150 columns for Taki’s Magazine, and is the author of four books, including The Redneck Manifesto. He has worked as a radio host, a country singer, and a cabdriver.

Sam Dickson — “Three Four-letter Words: Love, Hate and Race.” Mr. Dickson is an attorney who has been a advocate for our people since his college days. He will be addressing his 11th American Renaissance conference.

“Remembering Arthur Jensen and Philippe Rushton.” We will celebrate the lives of these two great scientists, who died during 2012. We honor them for their pursuit of truth in the face of vicious persecution. Audience members will be asked to share their recollections.

American Renaissance Conference

April 5 - 7, 2013 near Nashville, Tennessee

Conference Schedule:

The conference will begin on Friday, April 5, 2013, with registration from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. There will then be a reception followed by opening remarks from the American Renaissance staff. Latecomer registration is at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 6, and the program will begin promptly at 9:00 a.m.

There will be a banquet (separate charge of $35) on Saturday evening. Participants with alternate dinner plans are welcome after the meal to hear the after-dinner speaker. The program will resume on Sunday the 7th, and end at 11:00 a.m.

Gentlemen will wear jackets and ties to conference events. We will prepare name tags in advance; call us if you would like to use a nom de guerre.

Please contact us if you or your organization would like to set up a vendor table.

Accommodations and Transportation:

The conference will be at a beautiful, government-owned facility about 45 minutes west of Nashville, TN. We will announce the exact location soon. If you fly, it would be best to rent a car at Nashville airport (they are less than $20 a day if you book early).

There are a few suites and villas for those who wish to attend as groups.

Suites (1 king bed, 2 double beds): $205/night. Villas (1 king, 2 queen, 1 queen sofa sleeper): $326/night. Please call us if you would like to reserve a suite or villa.

Payment:

Registration for the conference is $100 per person, $150 after March 1. Accommodations are only $82 per night, and there is no extra charge for double occupancy. A room for two nights (Friday and Saturday), including all taxes, is $164. A total of $264 therefore reserves your place at the conference, as well as lodging for two nights. Just provide your name at check-in.

We cannot guarantee availability of rooms past March 1.

It will help us greatly if you register early and it will also ensure you a room on site.
